New Ground-Breaking Public-Private Partnership to Prevent Health Care Fraud

Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary Kathleen Sebelius and Attorney General Eric Holder last week announced the launch of a ground-breaking partnership among the federal government, State officials, several leading private health insurance organizations, and other health care anti-fraud groups to prevent health care fraud. This voluntary, collaborative arrangement uniting public and private organizations is the next step in the Obama administration's efforts to combat health care fraud and safeguard health care dollars to better protect taxpayers and consumers.

The new partnership is designed to share information and best practices in order to improve detection and prevent payment of fraudulent health care billings. Its goal is to reveal and halt scams that cut across a number of public and private payers. The partnership will enable those on the front lines of industry anti-fraud efforts to share their insights more easily with investigators, prosecutors, policymakers and other stakeholders. It will help law enforcement officials to more effectively identify and prevent suspicious activities, better protect patients' confidential information and use the full range of tools and authorities provided by the Affordable Care Act and other essential statutes to combat and prosecute illegal actions.

To learn more about this effort, including the initial list of partners, go to <http://www.hhs.gov/news/press/2012pres/07/20120726a.html>

HAI Action Plan Update: Long-Term Care Facilities Chapter Available for Public Comment

The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) recently announced the availability for public comment of Phase 3 in the 5-year National Action Plan to Prevent Healthcare-Associated Infections: Roadmap to Elimination (HAI Action Plan). The new Long-Term Care \(LTC\) chapter focuses on combating HAIs in nursing facilities and skilled nursing facilities. It extends earlier efforts that focused on acute care hospitals (Phase 1), ambulatory surgical centers and end-stage renal disease facilities (Phase 2) and influenza vaccination of healthcare personnel (Phase 2).

The LTC strategy proposes to expand the activities of multiple federal and nonfederal partners to combat HAIs prevalent in LTC settings, including urinary tract infection (UTI), lower respiratory tract infections, influenza and influenza-like illness, Clostridium difficile infection (CDI), and skin, soft tissue, and wound infections. The chapter proposes that progress be assessed by tracking resident influenza and pneumonia vaccination rates and the rates of two HAIs:

HHS encourages comments from the general public, state and local health agencies, professional groups, foundations, Medicare and Medicaid-related organizations, insurers, business groups, and others. Comments may be submitted to OHQ@hhs.gov until 5:00 PM (ET) on August 22, 2012.

Please see the HHS web site for additional information about the HAI Initiative and the HHS Partnership for Patients

The National Aging Information and Referral Support Center

The Administration for Community Living Administration on Aging (AoA) funds a number of resource centers designed to provide information to consumers and technical assistance to professionals on a variety of topics.

One AoA-funded Resource Center, the National Aging Information and Referral Support Center (the Center), is administered by the National Association of States United for Aging and Disabilities. For over 20 years, the Center has provided training, technical assistance, product development and consultation on a myriad of issues relating to information & assistance and aging programs to state agencies on aging and disabilities, Area Agencies on Aging, Aging and Disability Resource Centers, and more than 2,000 aging information and referral/assistance provider agencies.

The Center recently developed a free online training course, "Basic Training for Aging I&R/A Professionals." This course aims to advance the knowledge, skills and work-related competences of I&R/A professionals and is designed to help prepare them to obtain a certification in CIRS-A (Certified Information and Referral Specialist-Aging).

To learn more about the National Aging Information and Referral Support Center and the new online training, visit http://www.nasud.org/I_R/ir_index.html

If you would like to know more about the Resource Centers that AoA funds, you can find information at: http://www.aoa.gov/AoARoot/Resource_Centers/Index.aspx

AoA will be featuring the other resource centers in future newsletters.

AHRQ Releases Training Modules to Help Improve the Safety of Nursing Home

The Department of Health and Human Services Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) recently released a set of training modules to help educate nursing home staff on key patient safety concepts critical to improving the safety of nursing home residents. The modules "Improving Patient Safety in Long-Term Care Facilities" include the following publications:

Detecting Change in a Resident's Condition

Communicating Change in a Resident's Condition

Falls Prevention and Management

Each of the modules has an instructor's guide and a student workbook.

Training of nursing home staff, including support for teamwork across specialties, is likely to be effective in reducing medical errors and improving patient safety and can help reduce the number of falls and fall-related injuries at nursing centers. Select to access the modules.

New Online Census Tool Gives Public Wider Access to Key US Statistics

Census API lets developers create custom apps, reach new users

The US Census Bureau last week released a new online service that makes key demographic, socio-economic and housing statistics more accessible than ever before. The Census Bureau's first-ever public Application Programming Interface (API) allows developers to design Web and mobile apps to explore or learn more about America's changing population and economy.

The new API lets developers customize Census Bureau statistics into Web or mobile apps that provide users quick and easy access from two popular sets of statistics:

- 2010 Census (Summary File 1), which includes detailed statistics on population, age, sex, race, Hispanic origin, household relationship
- Owner/renter status, for a variety of geographic areas down to the level of census tracts and blocks.

Register for Perspectives on Nutrition and Aging: A National Summit

On behalf of the AoA-MOWAA (Administration on Aging-Meals On Wheels Association of America) National Resource Center on Nutrition and Aging, we invite you to celebrate, imagine and build the future of senior nutrition in America at Perspectives on Nutrition and Aging: A National Summit, to be held near Washington, DC, on August 23, 2012, at the Gaylord National Harbor Hotel.

The officially sanctioned celebration of the 40th Anniversary of the Older Americans Act Nutrition Program, this Summit is a unique opportunity to explore the challenges and opportunities of the next 40 years and to prepare for the far-reaching health, economic and social consequences that will determine the future of senior nutrition services.

The registration fee for the Summit is $50, which includes all materials, a luncheon with keynote speaker Dr. David L. Katz, and admission to all Summit sessions. Building the future will involve collaboration, innovation and courage from all of us. We hope you will join us at Perspectives on Nutrition and Aging: A National Summit.

You can register for the Summit online at <http://summit.nutritionandaging.org> and learn more about the event.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Erika Kelly or Suzanne Grubb at resourcecenter@mowaa.org or 703-548-5558.
