Agenda for the Spring 2018 Meeting

June 5, 2018
9:30 – 11:30 AM

Hosted by the

United States Securities and Exchange Commission
Jay Clayton, Chair

100 F Street NE
Washington, DC 20549

I. Opening Remarks
   - Alex M. Azar II, Secretary, United States Department of Health and Human Services
     o Chair, Elder Justice Coordinating Council
   - Jeff Sessions, Attorney General of the United States

II. Effects of the Opioid Crisis
   - Laura Mosqueda, MD, Director, National Center on Elder Abuse and Dean, Keck School of Medicine, University of Southern California
     o Impact of opioids on families, based on work as a clinician and National Center on Elder Abuse Director
   - Robert B. Blancato, National Coordinator Elder Justice Coalition
     o Comments on progress addressing elder justice and on implementing EJCC recommendations, and how the opioid epidemic is an elder justice issue
   - William F. Benson, National Policy Advisor, National Adult Protective Services Association
     o Impact of the opioid crisis on Adult Protective Services

III. Presentation by Elder Justice Working Group Representatives Opportunities and Plans for Improving Intergovernmental Coordination and Collaboration in Elder Justice:
    - Research and Grant Making
    - Data Collection and Sharing
    - Information Dissemination

IV. Remarks and Responses by EJCC Members

V. Conclusions and Closing Remarks